Reformer Selected to Lead the IPM's Community Relations Program

Ursula Price has been appointed Executive Director of Community Relations for the New Orleans Office of the Independent Police Monitor and will join the office on September 20, 2010.

Ms. Price earned an M.A. in International Relations from the University of Chicago and a B.A. in Political Science from Millsaps College. She was a strong advocate for criminal justice reform in New Orleans and supported the creation of the office she will join now.

Police Monitor Susan Hutson said, "Ms. Price is excited to help build the IPM's community outreach program. Her experience in this community is extensive and will be an asset to the Office of the Police Monitor."
